- Business arising

- Defibrillator This will be introduced in the near future.
- Camp Quin MoLac Congregation donations were all returned after the cancellation of this summer's program.

MOTION: to donate $ 500.00 to the camp to help with expenses Clair/Adamson Carried

- Deferrals and Cancellations
 - Purchase of New Hymnaries
 - Fellowships after services
 - Christmas in June
 - Christmas Craft Sale
 - Guess Who's Coming to Dinner
 - Prince Charles Talent Show
- We recommend that we hold the Christmas Hamper event in some form, perhaps with gift card donations rather than grocery boxes. This will be managed by Linda Brown and Sheila Anthony.
- Don Coleman will contact Simon Gowdy about shoveling our snow again this winter.
- Don Coleman distributed his Financial Report. We are still in reasonably good shape. Our donations and rentals are down and have left reserves about $ 12 000.00 less than at year end. Don will remind the congregation about this situation when church resumes.

MOTION: to accept the Treasurer's Report Coleman/McDougall Carried

- John McDougall will assist with counting on October 11. Other dates will follow as services are approved.
- Three members watched the United Church's Financial Webinar in August and agree that many congregations are in much poorer shape and will require financial assistance. We are not eligible.
- We reviewed the rental charges in 2019 and made some changes on January 1, 2020. No further changes will be necessary.
- Next meeting: Tuesday October 6, 2020 at 7.00 p.m.
